

W. P. WALTON.

HERE is bad news indeed for the hungry horde. "A prominent republican in whose word I put faith said to the Louisville Times correspondent that the President told him that he would not remove any presidential postmaster before his term expired, except for cause." In this district Gov. McCreary stands between his friends and danger and the governor has never been known to get left yet. He and Harrison are old friends and when he called on the President this week he was received with great cordiality. Among other matters discussed the governor's measure, which is now a law, providing for the Congress of the three Americas in Washington next fall, was referred to. The President complimented him by saying that if he had the choice of all matters of national importance with which to connect his administration, he would select that of this conference of the republics of this continent.

THE U. S. District Attorney for West Virginia refused to resign at the request of Mr. Harrison and telegraphed: "I know of no act of mine, either official or otherwise, which in the absence of cause being assigned would justify me under existing circumstances in tendering my resignation. I therefore respectfully decline to make such resignation, and if the President wants me to vacate the office without cause being assigned, let him assert his prerogative." That's business. Every democratic Federal official should do likewise. If Harrison wants to take the bit in his teeth let him go the whole hog. Democrats should not lend their aid in making his official life any easier than the opposition made Mr. Cleveland's.

GEN. BRADLEY, far from the scene of strife, is quietly practicing his profession in the Mt. Vernon Circuit Court. What ever may be said of his actions heretofore, it must be admitted that he has behaved with remarkable propriety since the inauguration. He has not been near Washington, nor has he made himself at all officious. All the same we believe he has the "couch" on the Mexican Mission, which pays $12,000, besides certain other emoluments. He deserves it to be sure, and we certainly hope he will get there.

THE Memphis Tribune, which was recently inaugurated at Memphis, to disseminate bloody shirt and other republican dogmas, and which was to be edited by the renegade Gen. Cadmus, has under a bad start. It paid off its poor printers with worthless checks and its manager is in jail for it. If Cadmus and the whole lay-out were also locked up it would be much better for the peace and prosperity of the section the disgraces.

DISSENT with the 1,013 anti-prohibition majority he helped to make in Christian county, Sam Small will wipe the dust of this count from his feet this fall and sail to the Old World, where he will head the lion in his den, choosing the principal cities of England, Ireland and Scotland. Small ought to like vessels of his calibre, remain close to shore. He can never make himself much greater than his name implies.

WE have received a copy of the Free, published by the students of Centre College, with John S. Van Winkle, editor in chief. Its contents are very creditable, and especially interesting to students, present and past, of that institution. The Danville Advocate job department does its printing, which is equivalent to saying it is well done.

THE Times and several other equally as ignorant papers, state that ground hog winter ended Wednesday. It is six weeks from the time the g. h. sees his shadow and returns to his hole before he again emerges and the six weeks does not end till to-morrow. There is nothing like being accurate about these things.

PERRY Belmont, who went as Minister to Spain last month, has hardly time to get acquainted before Blaine, who had it in for him, fired a new man Blither. Our own Boyl Winchester will soon come walking home also. But Buck, the bug hunter, bless his soul, is with us yet.

GEN. GORE will not be governor of West Virginia this time, his claims to the office having been virtually set aside by the Supreme Court of the State. Harrison might as well give him a job. Wilson will remain governor till the legislature declares otherwise.

BLAINE has appointed his son Walker, examiner of claims in the State department and Harrison's son, Russell has been by common consent made the Crown Prince. This is a paternal government and the fathers are taking care of their offspring.

EUGENE SCHUYLER, of New York, has been appointed Assistant Secretary of State, and Cyrus Bussey, of New York, Assistant Secretary of the Interior. New York is evidently going to get her full share and more of the spoils.

THE cold-blooded assassination of Capt. Dawson, editor of the Charleston Courier, by a disreputable physician, whom he remonstrated with for trying to lend his Swiss servant girl astray, calls loudly for hemp and it is hoped that it will be used promptly. After murdering his victim, McIlw tried to bury the dead editor and thus hide his crime, but failing he delivered himself up after several hours and then put up a pitiful plea of self-defense. The citizens are fully aroused over the character of their loss and intend that McIlw shall suffer the full penalty. All the flags in the city are at half mast and telegrams of sympathy are pouring in from all parts of the country.

AMONG the Kentucky territorial officials named by the Times as having to go, is Judge M. C. Santley, associate justice of Wyoming. We have it from good authority that the law provides that judicial officers can not be removed except from good and sufficient cause during their term of four years and that Judge Santley is not alarmed about his tenure. His friends sincerely hope that he will serve his term of which less than a year has gone. He went at great cost and to have to return sooner would break him up financially completely.

THE Democratic Central Committee has adopted a very necessary order that no man shall be a member of a county committee who fails to vote the democratic ticket. In pursuance thereof J. H. Rutherford, who voted for a republican for congressman of Lexington, has been removed from the Fayette committee. This is exactly right. None but true and tried men should be placed on guard. Give us a competent committee, if nothing else.

THIS is the plank of the republican platform to which Harrison is bound both by party commands and previous utterances: "The spirit and purpose of the reform should be observed in all executive appointments, and all laws at variance with existing reform legislation should be repealed, to the end that the dangers to free institutions that lurk in the power of official patronage may be wisely and effectually avoided."

THE Rhode Island democrats, nominating a full ticket for State offices Tuesday, with John W. Davis for governor and reaffirmed the tariff reform policy on which the late campaign was fought and which won in nearly all the manufacturing centres. The platform also advocates the resubmission of constitutional prohibition and the adoption of the Australian or some other system of ballot reform.

THE prohibitionists seem to be playing in unusual bad luck this year. New Hampshire voted an amendment to her constitution forbidding the manufacture and sale of liquors, Tuesday, but the returns show that it was defeated by a very decided majority. The old and perhaps true cry that prohibition cannot prohibit is getting in its work wherever people have had a chance for observation.

MILLER, attorney general, is getting in his work in Indiana. He has removed to on Bail y, assistant district attorney, and appointed John B. Cochran in his stead. Bailey's offense was that he took an active part against Harrison and made a number of red-hot speeches against him.

NOW is the time for your made Jeremiah Rusk, Secretary of Agriculture, to get in his work with the grangers. A few garden seed judiciously distributed will bring a big figure in politics sometimes, at least many a Congressman has worked the market to his own advantage.

HIS brethren of the press will unite in warmest sympathy with Mr. Bruce Champ, of the Burlington News, in the loss of his beloved wife, who died Tuesday after a protracted illness.

NEWS CONDENSED.

—The Charleston, W. Va., municipal election went democratic.

—Mr. Farnell has sued the London Times for $500,000 damages.

—E. L. Macey killed James Bullock, near New Hope, and escaped.

—Over 2,000,000 Germans have settled in America in the last 17 years.

—The wife of James B. Stairs, of the Jessamine Journal, died Monday of consumption.

—A bill to establish whipping-posts has been introduced in the Pennsylvania Legislature.

—John S. Clarkson, the Iowa fire-eater, will, it is announced, be First Assistant Postmaster General.

—Ex-Secretaries Bayard and Dickinson will leave Washington next week for a two weeks' tour of Cuba.

—Indiana's new high license law puts the saloon license at $250 in cities and $150 in towns. This is the State license alone.

—Albert Dunbar, who escaped from jail in Minnesota, when he is charged with murder, has been arrested at Frankfort, Ky.

—The bill granting suffrage to women was defeated in the Massachusetts House of Representatives Tuesday afternoon by 127 to 78.

—Senator Beck appeared at his post Monday and took the oath of office. He was looking but little the worse for his long illness.

—A woman died on an L. & N. train, a boy on the O. C. and a woman gave birth to a baby on the J. M. & L., all on Tuesday last.

—The Pennsylvania road has about abandoned their experiment with the iron cross-tie, being convinced that its use is not practical.

—Congressman Stone has written to the partial friends, who want to make him governor, that he prefers to continue to warm a seat in Congress.

—The sensational story from Claymont detailing the terrible deaths of five French tourists by outlaws, in Yellowstone Park, proves to be a hoax.

—The new Senate committees show that Beck has been placed on appropriations and finance and Blackmun on census, naval affairs and railroads.

—The Acting Controller of the Currency has authorized the Citizens' National Bank of Lebanon, Ky., to begin business, with a capital of $100,000.

—The bridge at Spottsville, the drawspan of which was thrown into the river by a malicious foreman, has been repaired and trains are now passing over it.

—The North Carolina Legislature adjourned, after levying a tax of 3 cents for more fully pensioning Confederate veterans and needy widows of Confederates.

—Inspector Miller has just examined Treasurer Sharp's accounts and found them all right. The statement shows that the State has $244,408.77 to her credit.

—From Feb. 27 to March 5 the Western Union at Washington handled 1,467,583 words, $57,182 being on inauguration day. This is double any former amount handled.

—On the 23d of April, when the people of Massachusetts will vote on the question of prohibition, the Australian ballot system will come into operation for the first time.

—A couple of young Virginians fought a duel Saturday, and after firing 42 shots and hitting everything within a half mile but each other, they shook hands and parted friends.

—Henry Bergh has been forced to resign the presidency of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in New York. He got too thin and brought many useless prosecutions.

—The United States Express Company will commence doing the express business for the government on April 1. The Adams Express Company has been doing this business since 1850.

—It is estimated by the railroad authorities of North Carolina that about 5,000 negroes left the State during the month of February for the West and Southwest. The exodus continues.

—The C. & O. road is trying a new steel rail on its track over the mountains. The new rail is 75 pounds and the company expects to be able to make much faster time after the improvement is complete.

—The new death-dealing electric apparatus, which will hereafter combat New York's condemned criminals out of existence, has been tested, dogs, calves and a horse being killed instantly and quietly.

—Charles Dilger, the murderer of two Louisville policemen, confessed religion this week, and will join the church. Later reports show that he threw into a tower cage and threw vitrol at another prisoner.

—Kilbans & Simonsen, the Mammoth Clothing House men, who were burned out last week, announced that they will astonish the natives with a new Mammoth inside of two weeks.

—Secretary Windham told Judge Dubois when he asked him if his successor had been appointed that there had not and added that he was not provided for the place, which is a very laborious and confining one.

—Congressman Finley is backing Wallace Jones, of Columbia, for Collector in the Louisville district and Green Trimble for Collector in the Eighth district, and Judge Boring, of Laurel county, for Pension Agent.

—A Salvation Army female is in trouble at Frankfort because she gave up the war upon the devil long enough to assist an erring sister in an abortion. Another proof of the old saw, that it is best for a shoemaker to stick to his last.

At Detroit, Mich., Nelson Brule shot Miss Ida Cornum in the head and then put a bullet into his own skull. They were engaged, but she discovered that he was a married man and refused to have anything further to do with him.

—The N. Y. Board of Emigration shows that during 1888 the total number of passengers from all foreign ports landed in Castle Garden was 370,822, 237,844 males and 132,978 females. The Germans largely predominate in numbers.

—The president has appointed Thomas W. Palmer, of Michigan, to be Minister to Spain; John E. Swift, of California, to be minister to Japan; John D. Washburn, of Massachusetts, Minister Resident and Consul General to Switzerland.

—Ex-Gov. Porter, of Indiana, goes to Sunny Italy as minister plenipotentiary. A. C. Millett, of Dakota, has been appointed governor of that Territory; C. W. Irwin, of Montana, and C. H. Hamford chief justice of Washington Territory.

—Hon. John A. Campbell, ex-Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States, died at Baltimore Tuesday. In 1861 Mr. Campbell resigned his seat on the Supreme bench, and went South and was made Assistant Secretary of War, U. S. A.

—Another Cæsarian operation has been successfully performed at Philadelphia. —A Kansas man was hanged under the prohibition act for selling Jamaica gin.

—Mason, of W. Va., seems to have the badge for Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

—Crown Prince Harrison's Montana paper urges that there should be no delay in turning democrats out of office and putting republicans in.

—The prostitutes of St. Paul have raised $5,000 to defend Lizzie Hart, of Louisville, one of their number, who recently murdered John W. Roberts.

—The steamer Kangaroo was sunk in Green river yesterday and George Ingram, her owner, and Edward Sumner, the boat's cook, were drowned. The vessel will prove a total loss.

—When J. T. Nelson threatened to shoot William Annot, at Pittsburg, Pa., the latter replied "Let her go Gallagher." Nelson thereupon let her go three times, killing him instantly.

—The high tariff does not seem to help the poor weavers. Nearly 6,000 of them have struck at Fall River for an advance in wages, and the looms in 50 mills are idle. It is the most general strike ever known in that section, and took the managers by surprise.

—Dr. John W. Scott, Mrs. Harrison's father, who is 80 and has been in the pension office for 20 years, is in clover now and will be given something extra. When he called at the White House this week four generations of the family were represented.

—Albert Wilson shot and killed Sarah Marshall, at Waterford, Ont., because she refused to allow him to escort her home from church. That he was not immediately lynched shows that the people there have more refinement than is necessary on such occasions.

From all parts of the country come reports of the deaths of people who participated in the inaugural parade. Diphtheria is the prevailing disease and it is gathering in thousands who marched through the mud in a pouring down rain making fools of themselves.

—The U. & O. is preparing to build a union depot in Louisville where its present sheds stand, which is calculated to be the best in the Southwest, and which will be more commensurate with the city's importance as a railroad centre than any of the structures now used.

—Three masked men rode to a store at Forbes, Mo., Saturday night and ordered the crowd of 20 men to hold up their hands. They did so and while one of the robbers held his gun on them the others went through their pockets and the store's safe and succeeded in getting off with the booty.

—Dr. McIlw shot and killed Capt. Dawson, editor of the Charleston News and Courier, Tuesday. The editor went to the physician's office to protest with him against his attentions to a Swiss maid employed by him, when McIlw became highly enraged and killed him. The murder is a married man.

—It is more than probable that Quincy E. Browning, at present special Inspector of the Pension Bureau, will be nominated as Congressman Townsend's successor in the 18th Illinois district. Mr. T. was elected last term by a majority of 4,201 in a total vote of 20,000, so there is little doubt that a democrat will be elected.

—The Supreme Court of West Virginia decides in the God Wilson gubernatorial mandamus case that Gov. Wilson is entitled to hold over until such time as the contest between Fleming and God shall have been settled, or in other words God is not entitled to the seat on the grounds that the returns were not declared by the Legislature. The fight will now be between Wilson and Carr on a quo-war-ranto proceeding.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. Ben Helme will preach at Rowland next Sunday at 3 p. m.

—The Methodists are raising money to buy a parsonage and have already secured about $1,250.

—The District Sunday-School Convention will meet with the Christian church here April 4-6.

—The Trinity Church property, New York, has an assessed valuation of $3,750,000. This property is exempt from taxes.

—Rev. Benj. Sandifer, of Bowling Green, commences a protracted meeting at Mt. Moriah church, Highland, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—Bro. Barnes seems to have deserted us. But perhaps he is too busy making houses and putting in a crop to think of writing. We'll excuse him under the circumstances.

—The Plymouth Church Board voted to pay their pastor, the Rev. Lyman Abbott, a salary of $8,000 a year. Mr. Beecher's salary for many years was $10,000, which sum was afterward doubled.

—In most of the churches here the music is a decided feature. We therefore enjoy it in the name of those who especially enjoy it that the preachers will let the choir sing the whole hymn, instead of only a few stanzas, as is often given out.

—The goodly-goody Postmaster General Wamamker is not likely to be seen about Washington on Sunday. He has a Bible class of 150 young men over in Philadelphia, and he doesn't propose to desert them just because he has to take care of all the postmasters of the country. He went over to Philadelphia Sunday to lead his class and proposes to do so every Sunday.

Farmers, I will buy your bacon. W. S. Hilton, Junction City.

JOHN CONNERT, a negro, was held over till Circuit Court by Judge Varnum, Wednesday, for stealing a lot of wheat from Mr. J. B. McKinney, of the West End. Connert acknowledged that he was with several others in the stealing and tried to turn state's evidence by implicating another negro named Jim Alcorn, but Alcorn proved an alibi, which made the judge conclude that he was not a man of his word and promptly disposed of him as stated above.

It WAS A BOY. In an issue of two weeks ago we spoke of Mr. J. G. Moore, of Jellico, being presented by his wife with a girl, and now that gentleman comes to the front and says it's a 12-lb. boy instead. It is strange, but nevertheless true, that all fathers are proud when a boy comes into the family and we don't blame the gentleman for desiring the correction made. A boy to any father is a big thing and particularly so when it is his first one, as is the case in this instance.

THE plays selected by Manager Blundell, of the Opera House, for next Wednesday night's programme, 29th at Walton's Opera House, are the highly laudable comedy in one act of "Goin' to the Sun," the favorite of all European comedies, "The Skeleton Wagon" and a sidesplitting sketch entitled "Mr. and Mrs. Somerton." Miss Pryor will appear in each and give a number of new songs and dances. The prices will be as before, 25, 50 and 75, and we hope a crowded house will greet the charming little feature.

TERMINAL WRECK. As the train on the Cincinnati & Eastern River road was going over a trestle between Kingsville and Vesper, Wednesday, the trestle gave away, letting the engine and two freight cars down to the ground some 30 feet below, completely tearing the engine to pieces and making splinters of the two cars. Engineer Meade jumped and saved his life, but the fireman, Jim "Yellow," a negro, stood at his post and received in and injuries that will likely result in his death. A white man named Hughes, who was standing a ride between the first and second car, went down with them and was fearfully mangled, one of his legs being crushed to a jelly. He was unconscious when last heard from and the chances seemed against his recovery. The passenger car, which was attached to the rear, did not leave the track, and with the exception of a slight jar no damage was done the passengers.

SUMMER. Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin were quietly enjoying a game of cards Monday night, when they were surprised to see the following persons file into their residence, each bearing some delicacy: Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Brunningh, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sine, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Nunnally, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Brice, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Owens, Mrs. Wm. G. Ferrill and Mrs. Mary E. Irwin. Their burdens were deposited on a table, which like most other tables under similar circumstances, groaned with its weight of cake, tea, fruits, etc. It was some time before the good couple could recover their equanimity, and then they were told that the offerings were in honor of the 30th anniversary of their marriage. The good things were then discussed and enjoyed, and after several hours spent in pleasant conversation, the party with a few with many good wishes for the couple, who, we trust, will live to celebrate their golden wedding.

THE District Millers' Association will meet with Supt. W. N. Potts at the Stanford Roller Mills at 2 p. m., Friday, 23d.

The Myers House office is undergoing a coat of paint and paper, which will improve the appearance of things wonderfully.

If the signal service is to be credited, the beautiful spring weather which has prevailed for the last few days will come to an end to-day. The cold wave flag was ordered up yesterday.

The returns from the Louisiana lottery are sufficient to show that none of the players in this section, of which there are legion since the Bowland club's big draw, struck the winning combination this time.

"A DEMOCRAT," who is so anxious for a certain squire to become a candidate for another office, must send us his name if he expects to see his call in print. We do not publish anything from anonymous scribbles.

Two postoffices in this county are still held by republicans—Hustonsville and Highland, the former by Mrs. Woods and the latter by Charles Baker, who was recently appointed. It is safe to say there will be no changes there.

JOHN DYK, who used to draw a pension, but was afterwards dropped from the list, thinks he will be reinstated now that the republicans have again come in to power, so he went to Louisville this week to be examined. He claims that his "heart disease" was contracted while serving his country, but he finds it hard to prove it.

JOHN H. BARRETT is authorized to write fire insurance for the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company, of Philadelphia. A successful business experience of 44 years is a sufficient guarantee of security in case of loss. "Old Pennsylvania Fire" has a reputation unsurpassed for fair and honorable dealing. Stocks and crops embraced in fire policies when desired. Try them.

We learn that the defense will prove in the case of Frazier, who killed Lee Carter at Mt. Vernon, that Carter was advancing on him at the time in a threatening manner and that Frazier had the gun with which he did the work, by chance, having been out hunting that afternoon. Those reports, however, do not agree with those sent out at the time of the killing.

A MAIL LINE has been established from Maywood to Highland, to connect with the route from there to Kingsville. This makes the fastest and quickest way for mail along the Southern line of the C. & S. road, as there is less chance to miss connections. James Terry, who has had charge of the old route, has also been awarded the new, and will make the trip from Maywood to Kingsville daily, not including Sundays.

It is hardly necessary to call attention to the large advertisement that appears on our first page for everybody will see it and read it. The advent of such an establishment in Stanford is of no small importance. A. C. HANSKY is one of the most extensive merchants in Kentucky, having large stores at Paris, Winchester, Mt. Sterling and Georgetown, besides one or two in other States. He has the reputation of being a most liberal one also and our people may expect goods at even lower prices than they now get there. His line will consist of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes and judging by the number of huge boxes the store will be jammed on both floors, it being the intention to use the second floor for clothing and shoes. Mr. Max Salinger is manager of the large concern and is a very clever and able gentleman. He will keep our readers posted as to bargains and announce the opening of the store as soon as he can possibly get straightened out.

HE RAN THIS TIME. When a mountain man sets his head on doing a thing you can bet your bottom dollar he is going to do it. Several weeks ago, it will be remembered, this paper contained a piece about a drummer who refused to run when several of the East Berstadt and Pittsburg boys had planned for him to do so. Believing that he had proven to the people of that section that he was a very brave man, and that he would never again be bothered, he set out to walk over the same road he was going over when the attempt was made to scare him. Whistling merrily along, his attention was called to a peculiar formation coming from a thicket near by. He watched it as it came closer to him and had no doubt come to the conclusion that his days had well nigh been spent, when the object, which looked like a polar bear, but which was only a boy wrapped in a buggy robe, started after him. The drummer of course took to his heels, but was soon out of breath, as he had a large sample case in each hand. Concluding that he was too heavily hampered for the occasion he dropped his grips and started out for another run, not over thinking of looking back for the "bear," which he was losing from. He finally reached East Berstadt, and after thoroughly resting up sent for his sample cases and in a short while was whistling away the time by telling of the immense bear he had seen in his walk. A torn pair of pants and a ruined pair of shoes were accounted for by him in his efforts to capture the beast.

THE mercury was up in the 70s yesterday and the fishermen who lined the ponds didn't suffer all of the famous fisherman's luck.

THERE is only one store-room vacant in Stanford now and that is on Lancaster street, near Main. It is very desirable for a small business and can be had by calling on W. P. Walton.

The trial of Jeff Henderson, who is charged with the murder of Howard Monroe, and laid in jail here so long, is in progress at Harboursville. The evidence was all in by Wednesday noon, but the News says 12 lawyers were to speak in the case, so it is not telling when it will be finally submitted.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Langtry and Richbald were not married, as reported, the law not having given its sanction to her separation from old man Langtry.

Miss Lily Cary, daughter of a respectable and well-to-do farmer in Mercer, eloped with Norman Cannell, a married man, who is also under indictment for larceny.

Mr. August Bartels, a young German, and Miss Mary Anderson, not the actress, but the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. A. G. Anderson, of this county, were married at the bride's father's near Crab Orchard Tuesday.

It is said there are so few unmarried women in Queensland, Australia, that their life is made a burden by proposals of marriage. How many old girls around here would like to have such a burden? Don't all speak at once.

A novel wedding in colored society took place in Richmond, Va., at the church of the Rev. John Jasper, the famous author of "Hesum De Move" theory. The bride waited at the altar while ten virgins with their lamps burning went down the aisle to meet the groom who stood at the door. As they walked the lamps of the five foolish virgins went out, whereupon they were summarily expelled from the building, and were forced to stand on the pavement outside during the entire ceremony. This was, of course according to programme. Then the five wise virgins whose lamps were burning escorted the groom up the aisle, where he was met by the bride, while the choir sang "Behold the Bridegroom Cometh."

W. J. DAVIS, of New Haven, Conn., has an African horn constrictor 22 years old. It is 30 feet long and weighs 278 pounds. The snake's appetite doesn't trouble it only four times a year, but at each meal it is fed at least 15 chickens or rabbits.
